ABOUT ASMC

American Society of Military Comptrollers (ASMC) is a professional, non-profit, educational society serving the men and women engaged in the field of financial and resource management in the Department of Defense and the United States Coast Guard. It is for all persons, military and civilian, who are involved in the overall field of military comptrollership. Military comptrollership is defined as the profession of comptrollership in the Department of Defense and the Coast Guard, to include the fields of financial, general, and resource management; accounting; finance, budgeting; programming; reporting; statistics; auditing; cost and price analysis; management analysis; and supporting activities in management/industrial engineering; automatic data processing; operations research/systems analysis and other such fields as the National Council may designate.

Mission Statement

To provide professional development and promote ethical behavior in all aspects of Military comptrollership.

The Armed Forces Comptroller was first published in 1956 and is the Society's primary means of sharing professional information. Articles are received from a variety of sources, including academia, government, and the membership at large. Each issue of the Armed Forces Comptroller is available to all members of ASMC, as well as Universities and libraries around the world.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Terms net 30 days. No commission is honored if full payment is not received within 30 days.
- All advertising is subject to publisher’s approval. The magazine reserves the right to reject advertising not in keeping with the publication’s standards, as determined by the publisher.
- Positioning of advertisements is done at the discretion of the publisher, except where a preferred position has been approved by the publisher at premium rates.
- No cancellations after the space reservation deadline date. Cancellations accepted upon written notice, if said notice is received prior to space reservation deadline date.
- Earned rates available, but may be applied only at the point of the rate break. Retroactive discounts not allowed on earned rates. Frequency discounts available only on advertising contracted within a 12-month period.
- Advertisers will be short-rated if, within a 12-month period, they do not fulfill the number of insertions upon which billings have been based. Split run not available.
- All advertising not clearly distinguishable from editorial must be labeled as “advertisement.”
- Publisher assumes no liability for errors in the advertiser’s index or in the actual advertisement.
- Publisher shall be under no liability for its failure, for any cause, to insert an advertisement.
- Advertiser and advertising agency agree to indemnify, defend and save harmless publisher from and against any claims for design, patent or copyright infringement, libel, violation of right of privacy, plagiarism, and any other suits based on contents of subject matter or graphic appearance of said advertisements.
- Publisher reserves the right to hold advertiser and/or agency liable for such monies as are due and payable to the publisher.
- No conditions, printed or otherwise, appearing on the advertising contract, billing instructions or copy instructions that conflict with the publisher’s stated policies will be binding on the publisher.
- The publisher does not guarantee any given level of circulation or readership for an advertisement.
- No contract is valid unless signed by a representative of the advertiser and the Armed Forces Comptroller representative. Advertiser or authorized agency must forward all materials to ASMC in accordance with deadline schedule and current rate card. Payments should be made to American Society of Military Comptrollers and mailed to the address on the advertising contract form. In signing, the advertiser/agency agrees to abide by contract regulations as stated in the current media kit.
- Cover advertisements must be 4-color.
